CALIFORNIA COLLEGE ADMISSIONS (2025)

- ✘ At just shy of 300,000 graduate and undergraduate students across its 10 campuses, the University of California enrolled the biggest and most diverse student body in its history for fall 2024.
- ✘ UC San Diego received a record 160,150 applications from prospective students seeking to enroll this fall as freshmen or transfers, the second-highest figure among the nine undergrad campuses in the University of California system. Only UCLA attracted more interest, drawing 173,297 fall applications.
- ✘ Among undergraduates, there were significant gains for in-state students, transfers and students from underrepresented groups, highlighting years of partnership between UC and the state to increase opportunity for Californians. In all, UC undergraduate enrollment rose by 1.2 percent to land at 236,070.
- ✘ To enroll in a UC for Fall 2025, applicants must complete 15 "a-g" college preparatory courses with a minimum GPA of 3.0 (California residents) or 3.4 (non-residents), with no grade lower than a C, and meet subject requirements in areas like English, math, science, history, and a second language.
- ✘ The California Community Colleges (CCC) projects that 1.48 million students will enroll in the fall of 2024–2025. The CCC is the largest postsecondary education system in the United States.
